Senior guys band together in a class meeting in the cafeteria.

The first Senior Class to graduate in the eighties was a close-knit group. The 140 plus members developed a feeling of comradeship as they enjoyed exclusive parties.

SENIORS '80

The Seniors also agreed that graduation exercises on Newton Field, if weather permits, would be a nice change.

Changes were numerous. The math teachers were switched around with Mr. McClure teaching trig for the first time. Several coaches, a trainer, and a band director were among the new members of the teaching staff.

CHANGES

Volleyballers Tie For District Title

The Varsity Volleyball Team, coached by Mrs. Nancy Ranft, completed the season with a 21-5 record. They won first place in the Breckenridge and Graham tournaments, and placed fourth in the Abilene Key City Tournament.

Although they lost two crucial games in the first round of district play, they came back strong in the second round with a clean sweep. This set up the district championship match against Vernon in Wichita Falls, where the Steers were defeated.

Rosalie Keith and Carla Myrick were named to the All-District team.

Remember

As Freshmen . . . the frightening first week of school . . . initiation . . . hitching rides with upperclassmen . . . going to the drive-in . . . sitting on United Parking Lot . . . going to the canteen . . . the first G.H.S. pep rally . . . the Sadie Hawkins dance . . . A TALE OF TWO CITIES . . . ROMEO AND JULIET.

As Sophomores . . . finally getting a driver's license . . . being the one to initiate instead of the one initiated . . . Junior Varsity and Varsity football games . . . the first year to be in pep squad . . . JULIUS CAESAR.

a. Did we really look like this when we went to the Study Hall for Freshmen registration. b. Remember the "cutting Board" from Shop I and Mr. Williams, the teacher. c. Our initiation was a surprising welcome to high school. d. Rebecca Frazier, Kay Odom, Jan Oliver, Stephanie Sims, Kathy Nix, Susan O'Bryan, and Charlotte Brown, really get into a GHS pep rally. e. Peter Bennis, Bobby McCool, and Billy Spencer play high school basketball. f. Wow, this really brings back memories. g. Was our Freshman football team really that small?

And Remember

As Juniors . . . Finally being an upperclassman . . . ordering Senior Rings . . . working in the concession stands to make money for the Junior-Senior Banquet . . . the RED BADGE OF COURAGE . . . the Research Papers . . . the PSAT . . . the Junior play.

As Seniors . . . "80" all right . . . being "HEAD HONCHO" finally . . . Senior portraits . . . Senior keys . . . preparing for the future . . . Senior play . . . Senior parties . . . being on your own . . . the sadness of the last pep rally and football game . . . GRADUATION!!!

New freshmen students in GHS arrived too late to have a picture taken. Kneeling: Johnny Nievar, Mac Witherspoon, and Mitchell Scott. Standing: David Wiseman, Shelley Snyder, Becky Pair, and Doug Dyer.

Education continued and along the way we had fun. We enjoyed our antics on and off the stage, we congratulated each other on honors won, we prodded one another to excel, and we worked together to help others.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Because of the many firsts and the way they combined with traditions, 1979-80 was a year we will remember.

f.

- a. Greg Pulis and David Buckley show their skill as Shakespearean actors. b. Tanya Miles works in the darkroom on last minute deadline material for the yearbook. c. Jaunita Evans escorts Dana Lindley in the beauty contest during the Valentine assembly. d. Mrs. Steele teaches English IV after Mrs. Pitcock retired. e. FTA members proudly display their scrapbook which won first place at the state convention. f. Kelly McClure participates in the jump rope-a-thon while Cyndi Hogan waits her turn. g. Jo Ingram (alias Superman) leaps over a tall building in a skit for the FHA beau.

Senior English teacher, Mrs. Mary Pitcock, retired at the end of the winter quarter after twenty years of teaching, nineteen of which were in GHS.

THE END

Mrs. Pitcock 'Graduates'

Mrs. Pitcock received her bachelor and master of arts degrees from Texas Woman's University. In addition to having taught English III and IV in Graham, she sponsored FTA, Y-Teens, and the literary magazine, Steer Scribbles.

a. Mrs. Pitcock puts the lesson "in a nutshell," b. Mrs. Pitcock shows Peter Bennis pictures of her trip to England. c. Mrs. Pitcock assists the Y-Teen Cabinet in the Honors Program at Glen Rose during the spring of 1978. This was the last trip made by the Y-Teens.

As this school year began, we predicted that 1979-80 would be the year of "change." We looked forward to old and new friendships, and becoming involved in as many school activities as possible. Finally, we could see graduation day in the future.

Looking back, we see that many of our expectations have been met. As a student body, we worked, played, laughed, and at times cried together and through a co-ordinated effort, as the cover suggests, the pieces fell together and we have evolved as one.

The purpose of a yearbook is to help us recall cherished moments of school days past. The staff hopes the Steer has accomplished this.

Our special thanks go to Mr. Jimmy Wray, Mike Vinson, Mark Kirby, Mr. Paul Studley, Mr. Fred Pankey, and the Graham Leader for their assistance to us.
